Page or Function	Description of Change and/or User Instructions	Business Entity/User Type Impacted
CON072	Information on the Invoice Page has been rearranged for better readability within this page. Example, the Information Section and the Date Section was previously located next to each other. Currently, the Information Section and the Date Section are located under each other. The screen functionality has not been changed.	MH Contractors using the Invoice screen, LBHA and SUD
CON074	Information on the Advance Page Screen has been rearranged for better readability within this page. Example, the Advance Number section use to be blank, but the word Select has been added to this section. Also the section that has the Information and Date was previously located side by side. Currently, the Information Section is listed first and directly under the Information Section is the Date Information Section. The screen functionality has not been changed.	LBHA and SUD
CSI141 – Claims Detail	Known issue that will be corrected in a future release. If a voucher is cancelled, the Voucher status will display as Cancelled. However, the Paid Amount field on the Claims Detail page will not show zero for the associated claims even though the claim was not paid. If the claim is later re-processed and shows it is vouchered, the Claim Paid Amount will show double even though the claim amount was only paid once.	LBHA and SUD
